2016 Arlin G. Meyer Prize in Non-fiction

The Arlin G. Meyer Prize is awarded biennially to a fulltime faculty member from a college or university in the Lilly Fellows Program National Network whose work exemplifies the practice of the Christian artistic or scholarly vocation in relation to any pertinent subject matter or literary and artistic style. The 2016 Arlin G. Meyer Prize has been awarded to the author of a non-fiction work that emerges from her practice of the vocation of the Christian scholar, in accord with the principles and ideals of the Lilly Fellows Program. In subsequent years, the Meyer prize will honor those who practice in the fields of music performance, imaginative writing, performing arts, and visual arts. The $3000 prize honors Arlin G. Meyer, Professor Emeritus of English at Valparaiso University, who served as program director of the Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts from its inception in 1991 until his retirement in 2002.
