◆ What are the best ideas and practices for helping new, mid-career, and senior faculty embrace and forward the church-related mission of their institutions? ◆ How can faculty members at all stages of their careers be nurtured to embrace the heritage and mission of their particular church-related institutions? ◆ What kinds of programs and practices are most effective in encouraging faculty, both new and seasoned, to explore the complex relationship between higher learning and the Christian faith? ◆ How can church-related schools most successfully stimulate faculty to embody an institutional mission in their understanding of academic vocation?

The Workshop is offered at no cost to senior administrators at Lilly Network member institutions as well as twenty guests from non-member schools. Each institution is eligible to register one senior administrator (president, vice president, academic dean, provost, or equivalent). One participant from each school will be reimbursed for travel costs up to $600. Meals and hotel accommodations will also be paid by the Lilly National Network of Church-Related Colleges and Universities. Additional participants from member schools will be waitlisted until September 12, 2017 and will be enrolled as slots become available.

The Workshop will begin with 11:00 am registration on Thursday, October 26, 2017
