◆ How can church-related schools develop faculty leaders who shape, articulate, animate, and promote institutional mission? ◆ What does it mean for faculty to take leadership in mission and why is this critical to institutional vitality? ◆ How can institutions nurture and develop post-tenure faculty who articulate, animate, and promote mission across the institution as teachers, chairs, deans, or senior administrators? ◆ Why do certain faculty members become leaders in mission? ◆ What institutional structures support or hinder faculty leadership in institutional mission? ◆ What does it look like to develop leaders in mission and how can my institution take steps to do so?

The Workshop is offered at no cost to senior administrators at Lilly Fellows Program National Network member institutions. Each institution is eligible to register one senior administrator (president, vice president, academic dean, provost, or equivalent). One participant from each school will be reimbursed for travel costs up to $600. Meals and hotel accommodations will also be paid by the Lilly Fellows Program in Humanities and the Arts. Additional participants from member schools will be waitlisted until August 31, 2015 and will be enrolled as slots become available.

The Workshop will begin with 11:00 am registration on Thursday, October 8, 2015 and end by 1:00 pm on Friday, October 9, 2015
